

Latest news

George Floyd died on Monday's night after a Minneapolis /,mini'æpəlis/ police officer hadon his neck for several minutes.

The video has been across social media.

.....celebrities and athletes such as football and basketball legends Colin Kaepernick and LeBron James have decided toagainst police brutality.

Manythe protest of Colin Kaepernick, who had during the national in protest of police violence and inequality in the justice system during the 2016 NFL season

16-year-old tennis rising star Coco Gauffamessage on the andkilling of George Floyd by police brutality. Sheherselfher hands above her head, wearing a black and questioning "Am I next?"

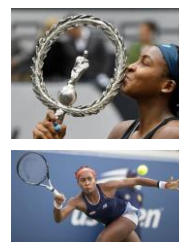

George Floyd's death hasprotests across the US. Indeed, there is asensation among the black community in the US that being a person of color can be a if confronted by the police.

<https://tennisonic.com/tennis-news/168405/am-i-nextgauff-keeps-on-raising-her-voice-after-the-horrid-killing-of-george-floyd/amp/>
<https://www.insider.com/video-coco-gauff-message-on-george-floyd-police-brutality-2020-5>

Fill in the blanks with the right words:

- depicted - sparked - powerful - senseless - hoodie - spread - invoked - death sentence - delivered - countless - knelt (x2) - widespread - horrid - speak out - anthem - raising

For help:

a knee : un genou
 a spark : une étincelle