

Source : https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Non-Violence_\(sculpture\))

15	 USA (original piece)		New York City	Headquarters of the United Nations	1988
22	 South Africa		Cape Town	Victoria & Alfred Waterfront
28	 Northern Ireland		Belfast	Girdwood Community Hub Gift from the Olsson family ^[21]	2019

Carl Fredrik Reuterswärd, The Knotted Gun a.k.a. Non-Violence (1980)

The Swedish artist Reuterswärd was a close friend of John Lennon, a musician who promoted peace in the world. In 1980, a tragic event shocked the audiences, Lennon was assassinated by a fan. The artwork The Knotted Gun is often seen as a tribute to the singer's vision of peace on Earth. Reuterswärd's sculpture is nowadays worldwide replicated in over 30 duplicates, with a famous bronze version unveiled in 1988 in front of the United Nations' headquarters. It is the perfect example of an artwork powerful enough to become an international symbol of peace.

- 1/ Give a general presentation of the document.
- 2/ Describe the document in detail.
- 3/ Find symbols and messages in the graffiti.
- 4/ Give your opinion on the art work.

DIGIPAD = <https://digipad.app/p/602527/904dd14099372>

Source : <https://different-level.com/10-anti-war-shocking-artworks/>