

SEE THE DANGERS OF THE POKEMON GO GAME

by INSIDE EDITION

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bCBSBnbKWac>

→ FIRST VIEWING = listen for words you know and then share your findings with the class.

.....

→ SECOND VIEWING = put the sentences below back into the right order as you hear them.

- "These little guys pop up and you capture them, just like that." = n°
"It's the new national obsession." = n°
"Somebody with evil intent could use a lure to draw you into a trap." = n°
"I mean, I've really read stories where these things happen." = n°
"But one feature of the game is causing concern today." = n°
"So here is how it works." = n°
"Sure enough, within a few minutes, a crowd has gathered." = n°
"Check out this crazy scene outside a library!" = n°

→ ADDITIONAL VIEWING = watch as many times as necessary for you to do the activities.

1. 00:00 = listen and tick the words you hear and then put them back into sentences.

- streets across people play America animated look for even creatures take little world
-
-

2. 00:20 = tick the correct sentences.

- The app always knows your location
 You don't need to use your phone to play.
 The goal (= aim) of the game is to collect as many Pokémon characters (= creatures) as you can.
 You are not allowed (= authorized) to start a war (= battle) against other players.

3. 00:40 = tick the correct answers to the questions.

- * What is a lure supposed to do?
 It is supposed to make Pokémon come to where you are.
 It is supposed to locate you and help you catch a new Pokémon.
- * What did the three dudes (= guys) on the Police ID photograph do?
 They used a lure to make people come to a parking lot.
 They used a lure to catch other people's Pokémon.
 They used a gun to rob (= steal from) other players.
- * Why have all the people gathered within minutes?
 They watched an advertisement (= publicity) for the game on YouTube.
 They saw a lure appear on their mobile phone screen.
 They came because the blonde girl and the reporter set a lure.

4. 01:27 = listen to the woman on her webcam ; what advice does she give players?

When playing PG, you should ...

- be with someone else.
- go by yourself.
- be with more than one person.
- pay attention.
- walk off the sidewalk.
- walk into traffic.

When playing PG, you should not ...

5. 01:41 = read and write down the warning the creators of the game have issued.

.....
.....

Give two examples you have heard about :

.....
.....

6. 01:57 = listen to the last sentence and answer the question.

What do parenting experts think of the Pokémon Go game for kids?

It is