TIME Magazine has decided to ask famous people about their December holidays and their New Year's resolutions.
Read the text. Reorder the dialogue.

Bye-bye, have a nice day!

Pleased to meet you! I was really looking forward to this interview.

Thank you so much.

Really? Wow, you're so lucky! Can you explain? Our readers would love to know more about your life.

Well, I'm back from such a wonderful trip to Australia!

Yes, and I will also spend less time on social networks but I will try to see my friends and family more often.

So tell me, how are you feeling today?

Oh, are you?

Yes, I spent the Christmas holidays there.

Wow, sounds good! Tell me more!

Of course we did! We gathered around the pool at my best friend's house. We danced and had fun all night. It was great.

Well, I hope I will get to interview lots of fabulous people like you! Thank you so much for your time!

Well, after that I flew to New Zealand. I met up with old friends and we celebrated New Year's Eve together.

I see. And, what about your New Year's resolutions? What are your plans for 2024 and what will you or will you not do?

Well, first of all, I will work harder to become a better person and I will be kind to others, as much as possible.

Oh, did you?

Well, I had a family reunion in Sydney and I enjoyed lots of delicious food, mostly barbecues on the beach. It was awesome.

Have you made any decisions about the environmental issue and how to protect our planet?

Thank you. It was lovely to be here.

Yes, indeed, I have decided to reduce, reuse and recycle as much as I can. And what about you? What are your resolutions for the new year?

Oh, did you have a big party?

Well, I must say I've never felt so good. I love my job, my family and all the people I get to meet and work with.

Okay, then, I guess it's time to let you go. I hope to see you again!

That is such a positive objective!

Please take a seat.

I'm sure we will! Good bye!

Good morning, please come in. It's nice to see you here!
